With F.M.L.

Former editor of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times died suddenly the other day. He was Robert M. Jackson, working in behalf of the Texas daily newspapers after his active newspapering ended.

Jackson was a quiet man who ran a good medium-size daily, possibly the best in South Texas, as if it were his own. It is one of the base newspapers of the Hart-Hankes chain, which has gone public.

He had been quite a civic influence in Corpus Christi during his tenure. He had headed a number of professional organizations, state and national.

He hired James Hollas, now a copy editor on one of the Corpus daily's editions, who started at your Herald in the late 50s. James made the move from Herald to Caller-Times in one jump. He had no other newspaper experience at the time.

Jackson came out of the old Mizzou's J-School in the 1920s, when it was entering its prestige years. He won the Missouri Medal, which is comparable to a Pulitzer Prize except it is presented for more than one year and more than one journalism consideration. And it is world-wide in presentation, rather than national.

He served his time in his community with distinction.

I met him during a press session in Corpus Christi in 1972. A more unassuming, yet confident man you would rarely meet.

Commissioners

Vote To Demolish McLane Building

By a vote of 3-1 Milam County Commissioners voted to accept a bid of $1800 for demolition of the old McLane building on the lot east of the courthouse, purchased to build a new jail.

Vote came at a regular meeting Monday morning, with Commissioners Lavert McKinney, Dalton Caffey, and Gerald Vinton voting yes and Commissioner Adolph Gresak voting no.

During the discussion that preceded the vote, Gresak spoke in favor of remodeling the building for county use.

In other business, replies from gasoline companies invited to bid on county fuel were read, all of them stating that they could not offer any bid at this time.

Bids were also opened on concrete and galvanized pipe, and on lumber and other materials for county use. County Judge O. B. Harden reported on an effort to apply for funds from the Criminal Justice Council to build the new county jail. He said architects drawings and plans have been sent to the council and statistical information had been given.

Tax Assessor-Collector Valter White reported that he is having trouble keeping extra help in the tax office because of the salary offered.

Tickets On Sale For Breakfast

Veterans Day, Monday, October 22 will be marked in Cameron with a Veterans Day breakfast to be held at Simon George Hall.

Time will be from 6 a.m. until 9 a.m.

Advance tickets may be purchased from members of the American Legion and will be available at the door.

Fall Camporee To Draw 100 Boy Scouts

Giving up the comforts of home in favor of "roughing it" will be approximately 100 Boy Scouts and adult leaders who will participate in the annual Tejas District Fall Camporee, scheduled for Shelby Smith Ranch October 12, 13 and 14.

District camping committee chairman, Ted Randall, is in charge of the extravaganza which convenes Friday evening and concludes Sunday noon. He will be assisted by Ron Derry, district Scout executive director, and several other volunteer district officials.

Randall estimates a turnout of 85 Boy Scouts and 15 adult leaders from the Milam, Falls and Robertson County areas that make up the Tejas district. He said eight Scouting units are expected to register by Friday evening.

To reach the camporee site, Scouters will travel east of Rockdale on Highway 79 four miles and turn left on a county road for one and one-half miles. Scout units should arrive as close to 5 p.m. as possible Randall said, as each troop will be assigned to a designated camp site on a first come, first-served basis.

Highlights of the weekend event will be the skill-o-rama contest from 1:30 to 4 p.m. and campfire festivities at 8 p.m., both set for Saturday. The skill-o-rama includes competition by patrols in tug of war, nature scavenger hunt, compass reading, string burning, chariot racing, a hot isotope event and many others that will be new to returning Scouts.

Randall said patrols and units will also compete throughout the camporee for awards of merit, honor, and on general camping skills.

"We have lined up an excellent weekend of Scouting and fun events for everyone," Randall said. "In addition to our many scheduled events, free time activities will include swimming, fishing, hiking and exploring. A number of canoes will be avail-

Pregame Supper To Benefit Center

A chili supper will be held at the Methodist Fellowship Hall in Cameron on Friday from 5 to 7 p.m. before the Cameron-Lampasas football game.

Proceeds from the supper will be used for the operation of the Cameron Day Care Center.

Chili, crackers, tea or coffee will be served. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12. Pie or cake will also be available for an extra charge.

Tickets are available from members of the board of directors of the Day Care Center or they may be purchased at the door.

able for us by qualified Scouts who have passed swimming requirements.

"If time permits, we will try to schedule some competitive canoeing events either Saturday or Sunday."

Parents are invited to the Saturday night campfire and may arrive any time after 5 p.m. Each patrol will participate in the campfire program and religious services will be available at the camporee both Saturday and Sunday.

Annual Banquet To Honor 4-H's, Adult Leaders

To climax National 4-H Club Week the annual Milam County 4-H Awards Banquet will be held Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Methodist Fellowship Hall in Cameron.

A total of 84 4-H's and 65 adult leaders will be recognized at this event, theme for which is "4-H Gets It All Together."

Two highlights of the banquet will be naming of the Gold Star Boy and Girl, and the Outstanding 4-H Boy and Girl by the Cameron Chamber of Commerce.

Ricky Richter, chairman of the Milam County 4-H Council, will be master of ceremonies. Invocation will be by Rev. Perry Richardson of First United Methodist Church, Cameron.

Nathaniel Whitfield will lead the pledge of allegiance, and Gene Garza, the 4-H pledge, Tami Gray will give the welcome and Priscilla Lamere will introduce guests.

Mary Lee Graham and Daniel Richardson will recognize the adult leaders and then County Judge O. B. Harden and the county Extension agents will present awards. Appreciation awards will be extended by Rebecca Riola and Donald Fleming.

Valuations Up In School District

Assessed valuations in the Cameron school district have risen some $2 million compared with previous years, Theo Aschenbeck, school tax assessor-collector, told the local school board Monday evening at a regular meeting.

Trustees certified the 1973 tax roll which shows an assessed valuation in the district of $28,021,641. Aschenbeck said he expects to collect some $350,221 in school taxes for 1973.

He told trustees that his office has collected $9,000 more in delinquent taxes that was collected the year before. He said there were 46 petitions filed to foreclose tax liens created by delinquent taxes on real and personal property.

In other business, trustees voted to raise the prices of lunches at school, effective October 15. Prices will change from 30 cents at Ben Milam to 40 cents; 35 cents at Ada Henderson to 50 cents, and from 45 cents to 60 cents for teachers lunches.

Decision came after Supt. D. R. Dodson pointed out that the lunchroom has been losing money at the rate of $214.77 per day since school started. He added that this will be decreased as the year goes on, but prices had to be raised to enable the lunchroom to break even.

Time for the November 12 meeting was changed to 7 p.m. instead of 8.

Ed Foster and Jeff Webster, president and vice president of the Cameron Classroom Teachers Association, appeared before the board and presented a letter proposing that two representatives of the group attend all board meetings.

Supt. Dodson said he was apposed to the Association "monitoring board meetings," that teachers were hired to teach. He said the teachers would be welcome to come to meetings as individuals but not as representing an organization.

Foster said it was the unanimous decision of the teachers to listen at board meetings without threat to their jobs.

Mrs. Betsy Brown told Supt. Dodson that several teachers had told her they would like to attend board meetings but they were afraid they would be fired from their jobs.

Dodson said he was for anything that would improve communications between board members and teachers.

Trustees voted for a motion to acknowledge receipt of the letter and welcome teachers as individuals to the meetings, but not as members of the Cameron Classroom Teachers Association per se.

Reports on their schools were heard from principals, with Bob Martin of Ben Milam and Ada Henderson, Bill Huffman of Junior High, and Jack Chubb of Yoe High. The high school band was also discussed.

Upkeep of the school grounds came up for discussion and Supt. Dodson said a lack of personnel was the major reason the grounds were unkempt.

The board approved employment of these Title I personnel:

Janette Bledsoe, Frances G. Brown, Minnie Nell Crummer, Emma L. Demerson, Elma R. Flores, Mary Sue Fuquay, Raynette Green, Rosa M. Haines, Bobbie Jean Looney.

Also Ethel M. Marak, Theodora Marek, Mary Tom Moody, Maxie Morgan, Bobbie Perkins, Max Shue-mate, Leota Thweatt, Marietta Turner, Dorothy Vaculin, and Viola Wied.

Patrol Reports 1-Car Accident

DPS Patrolman Larry Hester of Rockdale investigated a one car accident late Saturday night involving Al Matula, 16, of Cameron.

The accident happened about 71/2 miles east of Cameron on Farm Road 2095.

Matula, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frank Matula, was taken by private auto to St. Edward Hospital and then transferred by ambulance to Scott and White Hospital at Temple. His condition was described as satisfactory.

United Fund Agency...

Council Has Help For Alcoholic

(Another in a series about United Fund agencies. A drive for $9,000 will start here in November.)

The Central Texas Council on Alcoholism is a new agency for the North Milam United Fund. It is headquartered in Temple and serves Bell, Milam, Lampasas, Coryell, San Saba, Mills and Hamilton Counties.

The Council is not tied down to do one or two things for alcoholics; its policy is to steer the alcoholic or his family to the right agency or medical center for the help he needs.

It specializes in education, with a speakers bureau that is able and willing to speak to a wide audience, including school classes and holding seminars for businesses.

The council in its education efforts stresses that alcoholism is an illness not a moralistic thing. It is the number one health problem in the nation at this time, with from 9 to 10 million known alcoholics. This is not counting the "hidden" ones.

The Council, upon receiving a request for help, looks to see what local help there is, including emergency help for a family that may need groceries or other aid in a hurry.

Organized since 1962, the Council is a state appointed regional alcoholism authority. Its role is to coordinate all services offering help to the alcoholic. Unlike Services to Problem Drinking Drivers, the Council is not restricted to one area.

The staff includes Allison Joyce, who is regional service director, and Mrs. Ginger Roark, director of education and information. Her salary is the only one of the staff's paid out of United Fund money. Joyce's salary is paid by the state and other staff salaries are paid from a grant.

The speakers bureau conducts industrial seminars where employers are told it is cheaper to rehabilitate an alcoholic than to train a replacement.

In speeches to health classes, students are told how to recognize the symptoms of alcoholism, and what can be done to help the individual drinker. Speakers also conduct in-service training for nurses in hospitals and at health centers. A registered nurse with 15 years experience with alcoholics is one of the speakers.

The Council works with Alcoholics Anonymous and mental health centers in helping the alcoholic and his family.

Groups are invited to ask the Council for a speaker. The Council may be reached at P. O. Box 203, phone 773-3722.

Bloodshed, Then Reason?

A Reuter story documents the burning of books in Santiago, primarily the works of Marxists, after Salvador Allende killed himself.

The excesses of the military junta which ousted Allende's government also include the massacre of Allende supporters.

It is doubtful if the military knows how to run anything but an organization--army, navy or air force--subject to martial law.

Allende was unique in that he was popularly elected. The overthrow came when inflation went rampant and the competence of his administration to deal with problems beyond ideologies failed. The middle-class threw in with the military and aristocracy to crush social experiment.

Now we see counter excesses of trying to blot out Marx and Engels and Lenin by book burning, books steeped in 19th century responses to 19th century problems. Counter dictators like Fidel Castro, revolutionaries like Che Guevara bring down social constitutionalists like Allende. Posters of all three likewise are in the bonfires.

Considering the apparent counter-incompetence of the Chilean junta, they might throw in some military manuals for good measure.

After this old-fashioned "banana republic" revolution sheds its blood, it may also find the courage to restore reason. All it accomplishes now is to give Marxism martyred status in Chile.

Open-Minded Energy...

A survey of interest in a new Texas Constitution noted a breaking point at age 50 on the need for a new one, compared to the old.

People over 50 see less need, 50 under see more. The survey statistics bear this out.

A lot of older people in Central Texas, because it is, or was, one of the earliest and oldest agricultural areas, would agree, naturally with the over-50s polled.

But Central Texas, even the non-metro areas, are caught up in the biggest change in agriculture and community development since the post-Civil War. Attitude toward our constitutional base also would change.

Central Texas is the last major region to re-open development on a broad scale.

Witness the lakes, the broadening industry, the growth of livestock and grain production, the modernizing communities.

The over and under-50s are caught up in this change, because the growth squeeze is from all directions of Texas inward to Central Texas.

We have water as well as history. We have several of the major education centers and TSTI, the newest. We have room to grow. We have an open mind. We have central location, one of the major factors in Cameron-Milam development with the Texas scheme of things.

And we have energy that even our over 50s share in wanting to see this Milam and Cen-Tex development continue, regardless of what a poll might suggest about a new constitution.

CRUMP'S GRASS ROOTS COMMENT

If the U.S. news wire service retracted the fictitious news item we failed to see it. The U.S.-Russian grain deal seems to be a news catch-all for every sale of grain for export by farmers trying to get the top dollar for their efforts. Blaming the U.S.-Russian grain sale for the increase in the price of a loaf of bread is pure politics. There is less than 2¢ worth of wheat in an average loaf.

Oil Lease Sale Boosts Permanent School Fund

By Bill Boykin

The third largest state oil and gas lease sale in Texas history brought more than $21.4 million to the state permanent school fund and boosted its total above $1 billion.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong said the sale further may be the "most significant" ever conducted by the state, since it "marks beginning of a new concept in management of mineral resources."

Of 1.3 million acres in 1,712 tracts of state land offered for sale from border to border, more than 392,886 acres were leased at an average price of $54.65 an acre for oil and gas purposes.

For the first time, leases contain a new "in kind" provision which allows the state to accept its one-sixth royalty (where there is production) in oil and gas for resale, as well as in cash.

Armstrong said new pollution control regulations are written into the leases to protect the environment while drilling continues. Additional regulations were imposed to protect the Padre Island National Seashore.

Gulf tracts attracted more than $16 million of the bonus payments, bay tracts $4.5 million and upland leases the balance.

The School Land Board leased 1,440 acres in the Gulf off the mouth of the Sabine River, in spite of a state of Louisiana protest that the area may be within its boundaries. Tracts off Matagorda Island were also leased over protest of the Air Force which has a bombing range in that region. Bid on one of six Gulf tracts which the federal government protested for inclusion in the sale was held in abeyance. The U.S. says it may own the tracts due to shoreline erosion.

COMMITTEE MEETS
An all out effort to get the news and information about the 1974 Texas Constitution Convention is being planned by a legislative committee headed by Rep. Tim Von Dohlen, Goliad.

Rep. Dohlen met with legislators and newsmen last week to discuss a public information office for the Con-Con where all news media can get complete information about the convention. The office will be set up in the capitol building as close to the convention hall as possible, Von Dohlen said and asked reporters how they wanted the information bureau set up for maximum efficiency for all media.

SCHOOL TAXES UP

According to a Texas State Teachers Association survey, 44 per cent of local school district officials responding to a survey said local school tax increases were necessary this year to balance budgets.

Seventy-five per cent, said TSTA, responded that they will have to raise local taxes in 1974-75 to keep programs at present levels. Twenty-nine per cent said programs had to be curtailed this year.

AG OPINIONS

Signboards planted on private land should be treated for condemnation purposes as though they were owned and erected by the landowner regardless of private agreements on leases, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other opinions, Hill concluded:

*Portions of the new Campaign Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1973 setting up state and county election commissions are unconstitutional, but validity of other portions is not affected. Balance of the act will be enforced, Secretary of State Mark White Jr. said.

*New law bringing most Texas coastal waters under the uniform wildlife regulatory act does not supercede penal provisions governing seining. It does not cause the Parks and Wildlife Department to lose regulatory authority over shrimp in Cameron, Brazoria, Jackson, Willacy, Jefferson or Orange counties.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to commend you on the vital part you have played in the development of the mall in Cameron.

Those who have opposed Cameron's enterprise in this development have shown neither pride in their city nor foresight in evaluating the benefits of the project. For years there has been a lack of parking space in the shopping district.

They have also failed to consider the prohibitive cost of restoring the buildings which have been demolished to make way for the mall.

Those who have compared Cameron's downtown development to Waco's mall have failed to realize that there are no air-conditioned shopping centers to lure the customers from the shopping area here.

No city can be greater than its ambitions. Cameron has worked hard to fulfill this goal. Those who have been instrumental in this development should be congratulated for their effort.

RUSSIA-ITALY GRAIN SALE 'DEBUNKED'

Senator Robert Dole (Kansas) "... The sale of U.S. grain to Russia continues to be an issue on national attention.

"Rumors about this controversial issue can distort the actual situation, particularly when given national publicity by the news media.

"That is apparently what happened last week when a story said to be based on Italian newspaper accounts was widely distributed by a major U.S. news wire service.

"The account said a

"The facts ascertained by an inquiry to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, are:

"First. The Russians were not involved in the sale in any way.

"Second. The shipment consisted of 22,000 tons of wheat and 13,000 tons of corn.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

Reliable Soil Test Helps Plan Fertilizer Needs

By Bill McCutchen

Fertilizers have been in short supply for the last year and local dealers expect that the situation could get worse instead of better. This makes soil tests more important than ever as supplies will be short and price probably higher.

With limited supplies of nitrogen and phosphorus, nutrients must be applied at proper levels and the correct balance to maintain production and profits.

This is especially true of phosphorus, which accumulates in the soil and can be found in a wide range of levels on a single farm. Recent soil test summary data shows that 58 percent of over 10,000 soil samples from the blacklands were very low in phosphorus while 10 percent were high. Such differences should be recognized in planning fertilizer purchases for this fall and next year's crops.

A reliable soil test is the best place to start, and now is the best time to collect samples. Early sampling gives time to make plans and place fertilizer orders early.

To provide a valid guide for fertilization and liming, soil samples must be collected carefully. A slice or cone of soil should be taken from 10 to 15 spots in each field to get a good sample. For field crops, the slices or cones should be taken to plow depth, while a depth of 3 to 4 inches has given best results for perennial forages.

Put the soil in a clean plastic bucket, mix it thoroughly and remove a pint box full to send to the laboratory. Information sheets should accompany each sample to show past history and plans for the next crop. These plus mailing cartons for the soil samples are available at the County Extension office.

After determining what fertilizer and rates needed, consider putting out your phosphate materials this fall on row crop land. It won't leach out, and the only danger of loss is from weed growth.

Phosphate will likely be hard to get in the spring and it is a material that needs to be put in the soil at or prior to planting as one of its prime functions is root development and early plant growth.

If you have your phosphate down early you can be much more flexible with your nitrogen applications and not suffer yield losses.

Hereford Show, Sale Planned At Clifton

According to Lee Bassinger of Glen Rose, president of the Central Texas Polled Hereford Association, his group will hold its 22nd annual show and sale on October 26 and 27 in Clifton.

Over 120 entries are expected for the show to be judged by the nationally known cattle judge, Odell Gelvin, manager of Ogechee Farms, Fairland, Okla.

Hearings Set On Tradings

The House Committee on Agriculture announced today it would conduct public hearings October 16, 17 and 18 on operations of the Commodity Exchange Authority Act, which regulates futures trading in agricultural commodities.

Committee Chairman W. R. (Bob) Poage, D-Tex., said the primary purpose of the hearings is to discuss possible changes in the Act because of concern over the operations of the futures market brought about, in part, by sharp fluctuations in commodity prices during recent months.

Observing that a preliminary review of suggestions now before the Committee reveals a number of areas of possible revisions of the CEA Act, Chairman Poage said:

John C. White, Commissioner

There's Still Time... Texas Egg Production Cracks... Hog, Pig Population Increases... Not So Sweet.

Hogs and pigs on Texas farms as of Sept. 1 are estimated at 1,100,000 head by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is an increase of 15 per cent from the June 1 estimate.

Farrowing intentions for Texas for September-November are 56,000 head, six per cent above the same months last year. Intentions to farrow in December of this year, January, and February, 1974 are eight per cent above the same quarter a year earlier.

Nationwide, hogs and pigs on farms in the 10 corn belt states are estimated at slightly above a year ago. Hogs for breeding are up one per cent while market hogs are up only slightly from a year ago.

Hog producers in the 10 corn belt states currently intend to hold farrowings at almost the same levels as a year ago for the next six months.

HONEY is not so sweet in Texas this year as far as production goes. Even though production is down, the crop is sweet. But production is down 32 per cent in Texas from a year ago. Commercial apiaries had 81,000 colonies this year, the same as last year. But the average yield is expected to be 65 pounds per colony compared with 92 pounds in 1972.

Colony condition is poor this year due to late freezes and excessive rains in eastern parts of the state.

Nationwide, honey production is about three per cent less than the commercial production in 1972. Yield per colony is expected to average 74 pounds, up slightly from 1972.

EGG production in Texas during August is reported at nine per cent below a year ago and five per cent under last month.

Nationwide, egg production is down six per cent from the past year.

Texas layer numbers totaled 11,000,000 during August, which is four per cent below a year ago.

Texas eggs laid daily per 100 hens averaged 57.8 during August, down from a year ago and last month.

THERE'S still time to visit the Food and Fiber Pavilion at the State Fair of Texas. The pavilion is under the supervision of the marketing division of the Texas Department of Agriculture.

When you visit it, be sure and get copies of two pamphlets on how to get the most from your food dollar. One is titled "Texas Round-up of Low Cost Menus." The other is titled "Economical Texas Vegetable Recipes."

Theme of the Pavilion this year is how to get the most from your food dollar.

This is the fourth year the Texas Department of Agriculture has had charge of the Pavilion. Nearly one million people annually have visited it during the past three years. More than a million visitors are expected this year.

TEXAS ranked third in the nation in fiscal 1973 in value of agricultural exports with almost $800,000,000 worth of sales. Illinois was first and Iowa was second.

Total export value of agricultural products reached $12,900,000,000. Exports continue to be an integral part of Texas agriculture since the state is the nation's leading producer of cotton and grain sorghum.

LIVESTOCK producers are reminded to continue to submit samples of suspected screwworms to the fly laboratory at Mission. The Fall season is at hand, and screwworms increase infestations now until cold weather.

Digging Season In Full Swing

By Ozgen Acar

ANKARA
Reuters -- Turkey's "digging season" is in full swing.

Some 70 teams of archaeologists are scoring land and sea-beds for evidence of the ancient civilization that once populated this historic land and their search is a varied one.

Inland, on the Anatolian plateau, groups mainly work at long-established excavations such as the Hittite Capital of Hattusha and the Phrygian city of Gordion, where Alexander the Great cut the knot and King Midas reigned.

Nearer the coast, the search is centered around the classical Greco-Roman sites along the Aegean and Mediterranean. In Istanbul, experts are restoring the more recent frescoes of the Byzantine period.

This summer, one American team has even gone to sea. Using sonar equipment, underwater television and a midjet submarine, a party from Pennsylvania University led by George Bass is looking for sunken ships and undersea ruins.

Their results are eagerly awaited by diving enthusiasts as well as scholars. At present, aqualung diving is forbidden along the Turkish coast for fears that divers will loot sunken wrecks and other relics.

It is hoped this study will pinpoint areas of archaeological interest which would then continue to be closed to divers, but stretches of coast found to be of little archaeological value would then be opened to divers.

One of the biggest concentrations of archaeologists is near the Euphrates River in the southeastern province of Elazig where engineers are now completing work on the huge hydro-electric Keban dam.

Eight teams -- including groups from the British Archaeological Institute and the German Institute -- are working to rescue artefacts before the dam waters start rising late next year.

The most romantic "dig" is at Cnidos, the point where the Aegean and Mediterranean seas meet. There Miss Iris Love of Long Island University continues her search for the Greek sculptor Praxiteles' famed statue of Aphrodite.

Controversy has shrouded Miss Love since she began her Cnidos project seven summers ago. She has already unearthed the circular temple of love that housed the naked Aphrodite.

Conference For Growers

The annual Peach and Plum Growers Conference Oct. 9-10 at Texas A&M University will cover everything from roadside marketing to grape and apple production.

George McEachern, Texas Agricultural Extension Service horticulturist, said the meetings will be in A&M's new Rudder Conference Tower. Commercial exhibits will be on display. Starting at 9:30 a.m., first day discussions will focus on mechanical thinning of peaches, peach growth regulators, retail marketing of peaches on the farm and roadside, cooperative peach marketing and peach grading equipment.

That evening at 7:30 in the new Krueger-Dunn Commons, a banquet will honor Texas Peach Queen Patti Schultz of Mexia. Banquet speaker is Dr. M. E. Cravens of Ohio State University who will talk on roadside markets in the United States. On the second day, talks will center on potentials and limitations of commercial grape production in Texas, cotton root rot as a fruit production problem, and apple culture in Texas and Arkansas.

Other topics include trickle irrigation of peaches, cat-facing insects and peach tree borer control, brown rot and scab control in peaches, and the blueberry potential in Texas.

McEachern said the conference is expected to adjourn by noon Wednesday.

Calvert 1st Baptist Sets 'Homecoming'

The First Baptist church, Calvert, will observe the One hundred-fourth anniversary of the church Sunday, October 14. Founded in October 1869 the First Baptist church has had one hundred four years of continuous service and ministry to the city of Calvert and to the world through mission work.

Several pastors of the church became missionaries to China, Brazil, Uruguay, and Cuba. Other pastors became missionaries in this country by serving in areas where Southern Baptists are doing pioneer mission work.

Two sisters, Alyne and Sammie Guynes, married and with their husbands went to Brazil. Alyne married H. H. Muirhead. Sammie married L. L. Johnson. All are deceased but Mrs. Johnson.

Following the Sunday morning worship service dinner will be served to all who attend on the parking lot.

Dr. Joe Weldon Bailey, thirtieth pastor of the church, and presently serving as pastor said, "Our church family is expecting a large group of visitors to help us celebrate Founder's Day and our 104th anniversary. During the Sunday service a most important announcement will be made concerning building plans that include the construction of a two-story educational building. The building will include space for children from birth through the sixth grade. A beautiful Fellowship Hall and Chapel combined will also be included."

From Gause

Mr. and Mrs. Rommy Ray Mitchell and children of Freeport visited here with her mother Mrs. thel Mitchell and in Cameron with her relatives. Mrs. Mitchell accompanied them to the Mitchell family reunion in Hearne Sunday.

Plans are being made for the annual Halloween Carnival at the school. It will be held on Saturday night, October 27th. So keep this in mind.

On Sunday, October 14, the Baptist Student Union from A&M University will be in charge of the evening services at the Baptist Church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this service.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Van deWeghe and daughters of Mexia visited with relatives and friends during the weekend.

UGLY OR

BEAUTIFUL?

It all depends on whether or not you are a lobster-lover. To those who enjoy this succulent fruit of the sea, a lobster is a thing of beauty. To others it seems incredibly ugly.

Beauty is "in the eye of the beholder," but, contrary to another old saying, it is not skin deep. True beauty often can't be seen at all. It is something you feel, something of which you are aware—not necessarily seen.

Beauty, for instance, surrounds you when you walk into a church. There is something in the atmosphere that you can't quite define. No matter what's been happening to you, in God's Home, you feel a sense of peace, of sanctuary.

Had that experience lately?

Yoe Awaits Lampasas For District Opener

The Cameron Yoemen will meet the Lampasas Badgers Friday night at Yoe Field, in their first district game of the season.

So far the Yoemen, led by a fine coaching staff, have compiled a 3-1-1 non-district record. Lampasas has also done well in non-district play and owns a 3-2-0 record.

Ed Cauley, Cameron head coach feels that the Yoemen are ready for district play. "We've come a long way, even further than we anticipated," Cauley said. "The kids are ready and from here on, there won't be any easy ball games."

There is no doubt that the Yoemen will be ready for Lampasas, and the fact that this is Cameron's Homecoming is sure to add to the importance of a Yoemen victory.

Cauley feels that Lampasas with 16 lettermen returning, have greatly improved since last year and that they can run the Texas Wishbone offense real well.

When asked what will it take to beat Lampasas? Cauley replied, "We're going to have to stop making mistakes and play good, sound football like we did against Rockdale and Rosebud-Lott."

The injury of Harry Brooks and Ronnie Bennett have forced the Yoemen to make some important adjustments. Harry Brooks will be out the remainder of the season with a broken leg and Ronnie Bennett is listed as a doubtful starter for the Lampasas game.

Ricky Kelley will fill in at Bennett's line Badger position and Ricky Williams will move from offensive center to start in Brook's defensive end position. Brian Cobb has been moved up from the junior varsity to play offensive center.

Other changes list Willie Bell at defensive halfback and Lorenzo Majors at offensive right halfback. On defense Jafus White and David Wilson will be splitting the safety's responsibilities.

The Cameron vs. Lampasas game will be played Friday night at Yoe Field. Thursday night the Cameron junior varsity and freshmen will play Lampasas in Lampasas. Game time is 6 p.m. for the freshmen and 7:30 p.m. for the J. V.

The Cameron 7th and 8th grade will play Marlin in Cameron at 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

SAN BENITO SWOOSH

An interesting, and poignant, scenario will be reeled off Saturday at the Cotton Bowl when Darrell Royal's University of Texas Longhorn football team jumps in front of that Breakaway Oklahoma Sooner Wishbone Monster for what could be a third consecutive thrashing. Directing the Oklahoma pattern, from a Pressbox Catbird Seat, will be Jim Helms, who until Mid-Summer was as Texas Burnt Orange as UT Mascot Bevo or Royal's Jump Suit.

The one-time San Benito Swoosh, most heralded back in the state in 1962 when his Papa, Jake Helms, bossed his schoolboy team, had been on the Austin UT Campus since Mike Campbell signed him in late spring of 1963. After four years as a UT Wingback, Helms became a Longhorn assistant coach.

As an Oklahoma specialist, Helms used to scout the Sooners. He was around 'em so much he became fast friends with Barry Switzer, the OU Chief. So close are they, Switzer grabbed him off Royal's staff only seven weeks ago and made him Chief Oklahoma recruiter.

And, guess who's scouted UT's every move in the Miami, Tech and Wake Forest games? Yes, Jake Helms' boy, Jim. The San Benito Roadrunner.

QUICKIES

Royal has been fairly successful in recruiting sons of schoolboy coaches. Starting QB Marty Akins in a case-in-point, his Papa being Ray Akins, the Gregory Portland mentor. An interesting matchup will be the SMU invasion of Aggie-land, November 10. It will be the Luling-Lockhart battle all over again. Emory Bellard, the Aggie Genius, came from Luling while SMU Boss Dave Smith hails from Lockhart, 29 miles down the road. Wonder what the odds are against two lads from towns so close becoming head football coaches of major Universities? In the same conference?

I want to express my ap-

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our many friends and relatives for the kindnesses, food, flowers, and cards during our recent bereavement. We also would like to thank Dr.

CHEESE FESTIVAL

Cheese is not only a very nutritious food, it is one of the most versatile of all dairy products. It comes in many forms and a wide variety of flavors, textures and colors. It provides high quality complete protein which supplies all the essential amino acids. It is a good source of calcium, which is important for bones and teeth, muscle tone, and a sound nervous system. Cheese is a concentrated form of energy and is easily digested by most people.

When storing cheese at home, keep it refrigerated at 35 to 40 degrees for best keeping qualities. It should be covered to avoid drying and absorption of odors and flavors. Cottage cheese, cream cheese and some other soft varieties should be used in a few days. Cheddar, Swiss, Parmesan and other hard varieties may be kept for 10 to 30 days if tightly wrapped. Cheese spreads and cheese foods should be used within 30 days.

Cheese can be frozen, but freezing will affect the texture. Most kinds will become very crumbly and mealy. If you do freeze cheese, freeze it quickly at zero degrees, in small, tightly wrapped packages. Use it as soon as possible after thawing and do not refreeze thawed cheese.

Cheese is at its fullest flavor and quality if served at room temperature. Four ounces of natural or processed cheese is equal to one cup of grated cheese. Diced or shredded cheese blends more readily with hot foods. Cheese should be cooked on low heat and for short periods of time to avoid separation, stringiness and toughness. Use hard, dry cheese, shredded, in soups, sauces or casseroles.
